

"QS Quest is a highly professional recruitment agency. They contacted me immediately after my application for jobs in Saudi Arabia and Middle East countries has been received by them. After a short interview by the recruiting team on my past working experiences, they put forward my CV to their valued clients. Shortly, three interviews was being set up for me in the next two weeks and two was successful with competitive and attractive salary packages. I can see their knowledge and skills in putting me to the right employers which has eliminate time wasting. The recruiting team responses very fast, close follow ups with phone calls and provide unrival support during the pre and post interview process. They are very helpful, friendly and very keen to provide additional information on my visa application, living expenses and lifestyles in Saudi Arabia and Middle East countries. I have no doubt to say that QS Quest is one of the best recruiting agent for job seekers who wish to relocate to any part of the world, particularly in Middle East countries. I would have no hesitation in recommending them to any job seeker or even to companies that is currently recruiting." Chow Meng Lee
